How Popular Songs are Written.

Dexter Smith had written a number place. What I want just now is something after this pattern," and he read to the astonished writer some selections from several popular ballads. Smith was disgusted. "It surely can't be possible," said he, "that the public wants such misorable stuff as this." "It is not a call to call the call."

such misorable stuff as this." "It is not only possible, but true." "Then I don't wonder that mine is too good fer your aso. Good day!" And the young composer half angrily strode out of the office, reflecting upon the degeneracy of the public mind. He was going along one of the narrow Boston streets, absorbed in his thoughts, when he heard a dirty little urchin yell to his mother, "Sa-ay, mam! put me in my little bed"

There was his subject! And, going home, filled with a determination to write the most unutterable mess of dreariness he could think of, he composed the song which has since made him famous. His little joke was well received, and its reputation spread until the sales reached an enormous figure. In this connection

WHAT THE GENERAL SAID!

A noted General being asked by some of his friends how he liked Texas, roplied:
"If I was obliged to choose between Hell and Texas, I would choose the former."
The ubove saying is verified every day by parties moving from the North. East and South, and as they cannot decide exactly as to the existence of the former, they certainly avoid Texas, and like sensible, industrious people, seek a productive country, such as Missouri, Kansus, Colorado, Nebruska and the Far West. Reader, are you contemplating a trip to such a country on business or pleasure? If so, select the line having the least change of exrs and best accommodations. The Old Reliable Hannibal & St. Joseph R. R. (the Pioneer line west of the Mississippi River) offers you through Day Coaches and Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars from Chicago, Ills., Tolodo, Ohio, and Indianap Biver) offers you mode a local part from and Pullman Palace Sleeping Carr from Chicago, Ills., Toledo, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, to the Missouri River without change. Tourist and land-seeker's round trip excursion tickets on sale by this popular route at all Eastern licket Offices. For maps, timo-table and description of country and route, or say other information about the West, call on or address.

WHAT THE GENERAL SAID!

A noted General being asked by some of his friends how he liked Texas, replied; "If I was obliged to choose the former." The ubove saying is verified every day by parties moving from the North. East and south, and as they cannot decide exactly us to the existence of the former, they certainly avoid Texas, and like sensible, industrious people, seek a productive country, such as Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Nebruska and the Far West. Reader, are you contemplating a trip to such a country on business or pleasure? If so, select the line having the least change of ears and best accommodations. The Old cars and best accommodations. The day passed very tranquilly, with very few upon the streets. There appears to be two distinct types of the disease, one so mild that convaloncence is but the question of a few days, and another, a raging fire which consumes, particularly the young, within forty-eight hours. Both of these types are manifest in nearly coming out of the service as Colonel of every family attacked, and while some are swathed in sheets saturated with warm water, and vigorously fanned for ger has ever done in the space of two as many as twenty-four hours Of 100 that death would have ensued within twenty-four hours from heat alone, and to this is attributed the great mortality among children which characterized the inception of the epidemic. leans, describes the situation south as sorrowful in the extreme. On the trip down, at Arkansas City, the boat was not allowed to coal or land. Men stood on the banks with guns in their hands, threatening to shoot if any attempt to land was made. At Memphis, which was reached at evening, a most depress ing scene was presented. Not a dog, not a mule, not a negro, could be seen. The houses did not seem to be inhabited. From no chimney could be seen smoke ascending. Every place seemed to be deserted. Vicksburg was almost as bad as Memphis. Torror reigned all along the Mississippi. If the boat had freight for any town, it was taken on to New Orleans, the inhabitants refusing to receive it. At New Orleans things looked much better. Men were at work on the levee. The business houses were open, but little or no business was transacted. The return trip was made by rail. At Grenada not a white man was visible, and only a few negroes. At Holly Springs about 200 came aboard. The yellow fever had broken out the night before. The scenes at the depot were heart-rending-wives leaving husbands, mothers leaving sons, bidding them farewell, perhaps, forover. At one place a mother with three children go on the train. Her husband had died half an hour previous, and before his death had made her promise to leave on the train to save the lives of herself and children. She left her husband uncoffined and unburied. The Howard Association are accomplishing great lighted streets, over which the trees and awnings throw their ghost like shadows. The rumbling of the heavy wagon loaded with coffine is heard for a mo ment, and then silence prevails till a rattling buggy, bearing some member of the relief committee to a sick man's couch, breaks it for a moment again The new cases can hardly be estimated. Out of forty physicians in the field but six reported, and their cases aggregated over 100. The deaths were ninety-nine. The fever is still climbing up. weather continues very warm, and hope of any early amelioration has died out. The most marked death to-day was that of Rev. Charles C. Parsons, Rector of Grace Church, and Chaplain of the Chickasaw Guards. He was a West Pointer, and served gallantly in the Union army through four years of war. artillery. He was the idol, almost, of the youth of Memphis, and has won upon the hearts of our citizens as no stranbrief years He is a marter to his zeal whom he had fought. The death rate holds up in a way that has almost brought on the chill of despair.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 7 .- President Hayes and party arrived this morning, from Pargo, and despite the muddy streets crowds were early active to welcome him. The party drove to the Nicollet House, where, after broakfast, the President and Mrs. Hayes received a few personal friends. The Mayor and a few prominent citizens then took the President out for a drive among the mills and other objects of interest, and then went to Agricultural Hall where the fair was in progress. Upwards of 20,000 people were gathered in the am photheater.

When the applause ceased, Mayor Rand, in a few well chosen words, intraduced the President, who responded n a brief speech

President Hayes said he held in his hand a Hible which had been presented by a Union soldier as his only possession, to be given to day in aid of some Confederate soldier in the South, to be sold for what it would bring. Mayor lland then took the book and offered it for sale, Mrs. James E. Case parchasing it and paying therefor the sum of $100. Mrs. Hayes was next called for, and that lady rose on the stand and made her acknowledgment to the crowd. There were ories for Mrs. Case, which were responded to by the generous purchaser of the Bible by rising in her place in the amphitheatre. Three hearty cheers were given both for President Hayes and Mrs. Hayes, and Mrs. Case, and the party entered their carriages and were driven from the grounds. leans, describes the situation south as sorrowful in the extreme. On the trip down, at Arkansas City, the boat was not allowed to coal or land. Men stood on the banks with guns in their hands, threatening to shoot if any attempt to land was made. At Memphis, which was reached at evening, a most depressing seene was presented. Not a dog, not a mule, not a negro, could be seen. The houses did not seem to be inhabited. From no chimney could be seen smoke ascending. Every place seemed to be deserted. Vicksburg was almost as bad as Memphis. Terror reigned all along the Mississippi. If the boat had freight for any town, it was taken on to New Orleans, the inhabitants refusing to receive it. At New Orleans things looked much botter. Men were at work on the levee. The business houses were open, but little or no business was transacted. The return trip was made by rail. At Grenada not a white man was visible, and only a few negroes. At Holly Springs about 200 came aboard. The vellew fever had broken out the night before. The scenes at the depot were heart-rending-wives leaving husbands, mothers leaving sons, bidding them farewell, perhaps, forover. At one place a mother with three children go on the train. The rumbling of the heavy wagon loaded with coffins is heard for a mo ment, and then silence prevails till a rattling buggy, bearing some member of the relief committee to a sick man's couch, breaks it for a moment again The new cases can hardly be estimated. Out of forty physicians in the field but six reported, and their cases aggregated over 100. The deaths were ninety-nine. The fever is still climbing up. The weather continues very warm, and hope of any early amelioration has died out. The most marked death to day was that of Rev. Charles C. MACON COUNTY VETERANS.

Large Mosting on Saturday After-A Permanent Organ!-

Pursuant to a call previously issued and winted in these columns, a large number of the veterans of the late war met at the court house on Saturday afternoon, for purpose of organizing what is to be known as the "Macon county association of veterans of the late war." While the boys were gathering in they were invited to come forward and sign the roll, which many did, swelling the number to something over 250. Adjutant C. H. Fuller was made chairman of the meeting, and Captain J. A. Barnes was appointed secretary.

The call was read by Capt. George B Durfee, which fully explained the object of the meeting.

Secretary Barnes then read the constithe association. The constitution pre-vides, among other things, that all honerably discharged soldiers and sallors are entitled to membership, and that when ward relief committee this evening at the any member of the association dies he shall be buried with military honors. It is also provided that the annual meeting of the association will be held in Decatur.

It was voted that the temporary officers should hold their positions to October 16, when the first regular meeting is to take place, and when permanent officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

It was veted that the chair appoint a committee of three, to select and provide sultable badges for the members of the association. Captains W. W. Kerr, John II. Miller and John Scott were appointed said committee.

A vice president of the association was appointed from each township in the county as follows

Dr. R. L. Walston, Decatur; Jos. Bax Dr. R. L. Walston, Decatur; Jos. Haxter, Hickory; A. T. Griffin, Friends Creok; Capt. Persinger, Marca; Albert M. McKee, Capt. Persinger, Marca; Albert M. McKee, Illini; A. J. Widlek, Austin; J. W. Hamilton, Harristewn; H. A. Miller, Blue Mound; S. G. Washburn, Macon; Milam not represented; S. M. Myers, Mt. Zion; J. A. Cochran, Long Creek; S. F. SHAWNEETOWN is the oldest town in Illinois. It is wealthy and aristocratic. Since the yellow fever scare the city has established "quarantine," and steamboats are not allowed to land. A company of military rushes down to the wharf boat every time a steamboat whistle is heard, armed to the teeth. The other day the steamer Golden Crown came in headed for the wharf. She was notified not to land at her peril. an old cannon. She was loaded with a tremendous charge of powder, and a lot of dirt, and when near enough she was touched off. A correspondent writing from the scene, says: "When the cannon went off such a demoralized lot of idiots as went scampering and hollering up the Shawneetown leves, never was heard of even by the 'oldest illhabitant,' and dispatches have since been received from distant parts of the country, that many are still running for their lives."

NACON COUNTY VETERANS.

Large Mosting on Saturday Afternotion Effected.

Pursuant to a call previously issued and printed in these columns, a large number of the veterans of the late war met at the court house on Saturday afternoon, for purpose of organizing what is to be known Mun and masquitoes are among the as the "Macon county association of veterans of the late war." While the boys were gathering in they were invited to come forward and sign the roll, which many did, awalling the number to something over 250. Adjutant C. H. Fuller was made chairman of the meeting, and Captain J. A.

Barnes was appointed secretary. The call was read by Capt. George B Durfee, which fully explained the object of the meeting

Becretary Barnes then read the constitution and by-laws which are to govern the association. The constitution prevides, among other things, that all honorably discharged soldiers and sallors are entitled to membership, and that when any member of the association dies he shall be buried with military honors. It is also provided that the annual meeting of the association will be held in Decatur. It was voted that the temporary officers should hold their positions to October 16, the ensuing year will be elected.

It was veted that the chair appoint a committee of three, to select and provide sultable badges for the members of the association. Captains W. W. Kerr, John II. Miller and John Scott were appointed said committee. A vice president of the association was appointed from each township in the ounty as follows

SHAWNEETOWN is the oldest town in Illinois. It is wealthy and aristocratic. Since the yellow fever scare the city has established "quarantine," and steamboats are not allowed to land. A company of military rushes down to the wharf boat every time a steamboat whistle is heard, armed to the teeth. The other day the steamer Golden Crown came in headed for the wharf. She was notified not to land at her peril. The captain happened to have on board an old cannon. She was loaded with a tremendous charge of powder, and a lot of dirt, and when near enough she was touched off. As a tonic, in de-bilited states of the system, this remedy bilitated states of the system, this remedy stands pre-eminently at the head. Yet it is more than is usually understood by that term, for no other preparation known exercises an eradicating power over intermittent diseases at all comparable with it. As it is probable that, in the intervals of the paroxysms of these diseases a train of morbid actions is going out of our sight, so it is equally probable that this remedy produces in the same system an action equally mysterious, which supersedes that of the malady, and thus accomplishes the restoration of the patient.
